

THE MULTIPLIER EFFECT: Partnering to accelerate climate solutions

June 20-23, 2023

Program Overview

Subject to change

Welcome to the 8th Sun Valley Forum!

Collaboration is critical in the face of unprecedented urgency of action for people and the planet.

We gather once again surrounded by five mountain ranges in the beautiful Wood River Valley of Idaho, to connect in the theater and in working sessions, on nature trails, and around the dining table to build lasting relationships and impact.

We will surface and advance the strategies, technologies, business models and financing that can power the urgent transformation of our energy and food systems, restoration of nature and revitalization of communities across the globe.

Mainstage keynotes will inform and inspire while targeted "Multiplier Effect" workshops will accelerate specific impact initiatives by refining strategies, sparking partnerships and mobilizing resources.

9:20AM

THE CALL TO ACTION: THE STATE OF CAPITALISM FOR CLIMATE

I. LONG TERM DECARBONIZATION IN A WORLD OF SHORT-TERMISM

- Robert Schuwerk, North America Executive Director, Carbon Tracker

The energy transition is deceptively simple in solutions—retire fossil assets and build low-carbon ones—but we are not yet on this obvious but technologically feasible path. The coming reckoning of the retirement of the fossil fuel economy and the surprises that await us.

II. THE POWER OF TRANSPARENCY: REVELATIONS FROM THE SEC CLIMATE DISCLOSURE RULES - 490 PAGES, 14,000 COMMENTS, EXPLAINED (IN 11 MINUTES)!

- Jaime Nack, CEO, Three Squares, Inc.

The US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) has proposed a new rule that, if adopted, would require public companies to provide detailed reporting of their climate-related risks, emissions, and net-zero transition plans. This briefing provides an overview of how companies are planning to respond to this new type of disclosure and explains why this new rule has stirred up a whirlwind of discussion and debate.

III. REPRICING FINANCIAL MARKETS FOR CLIMATE CHANGE: WHAT TOOLS ARE REQUIRED?

- Ted Obenchain, SVP & Head of Commercial Development, Riskthinking.AI

Financial markets remain mispriced because institutions lack the tools needed to properly quantify the financial impact of climate change on investment instruments. Riskthinking.AI is tackling this challenge by engineering a new generation of enterprise risk management tools and analytics.

IV. MONEY TALKS. MAKE IT SHOUT FOR THE PLANET

- Alex Wright-Gladstein, CEO & Founder, Sphere

Without vehicles to attract institutional capital at scale, we will continue to fall behind on climate action. Sphere is enabling individuals and institutions to move their money at speed and scale.

9:50AM THE RESPONSE: THE FINANCIAL SECTOR RESPONSE TO THE CLIMATE CRISIS

- Ivan Frishberg, Chief Sustainability Officer, Amalgamated Bank
- Brooks Preston, Managing Director, Energy Transition Investments, Macquarie Asset Management
- Interviewed by Bill Weir, Chief Climate Correspondent, CNN

In the face of accelerating risk, the finance sector has a duty to act. Many are mobilizing to be partners in meeting the world's climate goals, but what are they actually doing, will it be enough and in time? An exploration of how the largest asset owners, banks and other financial sector players are organized, the potential impacts on real economy companies and the increasingly important role of policy.

10:15AM TOTAL PORTFOLIO ACTIVATION: PATHWAYS TO BUILDING A WHOLE PORTFOLIO APPROACH FOR CLIMATE INVESTING

- Kunle Apampa, Head of Client Solutions & Partnerships, Capricorn Investment Group

The intersection of an organization's mission and its endowment, from theory and high-level portfolio design to implementation and management in an active portfolio focused on climate investing.

10:30AM DRIVING CLIMATE AMBITION: LEADING A GLOBAL EFFORT TO TRANSITION TO A 100% RENEWABLE ENERGY FUTURE

- Henk Rogers, Entrepreneur & Game Developer, Founder of Blue Planet Alliance, CEO of Blue Planet Energy
- Interviewed by Bill Weir, Chief Climate Correspondent, CNN

The most recent IPCC Report urges the global economy to move away from carbon-based fuels to preserve life on this planet. Blue Planet Alliance (BPA) is doing just that: leading a global movement, island by island (and eventually country by country) to ditch dirty fuels and transition to 100% renewable energy. Henk Rogers founded BPA after successfully leading such a change in Hawaii.

10:45AM THE SOLAR AIRPORTS FINANCING FACILITY: TRULY CATALYTIC CLIMATE FINANCE

- Irving Mintzer, Professor and Director, Initiative on Closing the Investment Gap in Sustainable Infrastructure, University of Maryland R.H. Smith School of Business, College Park, MD

A powerful collaborative among philanthropists, investors and small island developing states are mobilizing climate finance to ensure resilience, decarbonization and cost savings.

10:50AM FINANCING RESILIENCE FOR ALL

- Duanne Andrade, Executive Director, Solar and Energy Loan Fund
- Doug Coward, Director of National Expansion and Partnerships, Solar and Energy Loan Fund
- Interviewed by Leslie Kaufman, Climate Reporter, Bloomberg

Hear from the founding team how a simple approach to financing climate solutions for low-income residents and small businesses, carefully adapted and scaled over years, has proven a model now being celebrated and replicated far beyond its home territory.

11:10AM LOCAL ACTION, GLOBAL IMPACT: TALES FROM THE CITY - PART 1

- Lauren Faber O'Connor, former Chief Sustainability Officer, City of Los Angeles; Adjunct Professor, University of Southern California
- Interviewed by Bill Weir, Chief Climate Correspondent, CNN

With nearly 8 years leading sustainability in the Office of the Mayor of Los Angeles, following a decade in state and international climate policy, Lauren Faber O'Connor has unique depth and diversity of climate experience in understanding what it takes to implement change.

11:30AM CATALYTIC CLIMATE FINANCE: GLOBAL INVESTOR COLLABORATION

- Jens Nielsen, CEO, World Climate Foundation and Climate Investment Coalition
- Carol Jeppesen, Head of US, UN Principles for Responsible Investment (UNPRI)

- Moderated by Joan Michelson, ESG Faculty, Competent Boards; Contributor, Forbes; and host of Electric Ladies Podcast

Hear from the leaders of two powerful global collaboratives among asset owners and managers how major public and private finance institutions are accelerating alignment for maximum climate impact.

11:50AM CATALYTIC CLIMATE FINANCE: TOTAL RESOURCE ACTIVATION

- Tim Dunn, Founder & CIO, Terra Alpha
- Ivan Frishberg, Chief Sustainability Officer, Amalgamated Bank
- Brad Harrison, Managing Director, AlTi Tiedemann Global
- Kathleen Simpson, Chief Executive Officer, The Russell Family Foundation
- Moderated by Dana Lanza, President, CEO & Co-Founder, Confluence Philanthropy

How leaders across banking, philanthropy, and asset management are deploying all of their resources to maximize climate impact.
